

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

- EVAN : A twelve-and-a-half-year-old Jewish boy from New York City, preparing for his Bar Mitzvah. His parents' divorce and he moves with his mother to Appleton, Indian where he struggles with making friends and fitting in.
- PATRICE: A somewhat eccentric and bookish girl who befriends Evan. Being somewhat more mature than the others, she of course is a social outcast.
- BRETT: The stereotypical junior high school football jock, cool, handsome, and not very bright. He is driven by his hormones.
- MALCOM & EDDIE Brett's crew, follow him constantly. They are loyal and supportive even if not always helpful.
- KENDRA: The prettiest and most popular girl in school, she's also the most oblivious and naive.
- ARCHIE: He walks on crutches as a result of muscular dystrophy. He is striving to live his life fully, which includes getting a date with Kendra.
- LUCY: Kendra's best friend, beautiful, manipulative, driven, focused, and frustrated over Kendra's success.
- CASSIE: Cheerleader. Eager to please.
- CHARLOTTE: More of a follower than a leader. Honest when it suits her.
- MOLLY: Gossip girl who can't wait to hear the next juicy "secret".
- RICHEL: Spontaneous in a moment of opportunity. Does NOT like Lucy.
- SIMON: Dislikes Lucy's controlling and domineering ways.
- RABBIS: In the tradition of the Greek Chorus. The Rabbis represent the changes in Evan's life.
- KIDS: Various students at Dan Quail Jr. High School concerned with what all High School teens are concerned with...dating.