

FROZEN

Character Breakdown

The following is general information for casting of leads in this production of FROZEN. This information is intended as a guideline, and in no way restricts any person from auditioning for the role(s) of their choice. Please read the character descriptions below.

When choosing which roles to audition for, please be realistic. Focus your efforts on the parts you fit into according to the guidelines. For example, if you are five years old, auditioning for the role of Elsa or Hans would not be realistic. Many things are taken into consideration when we are casting: age, height, acting, singing and dancing abilities, experience, energy, and so on. Please read the MYART Audition Information handout for more information about the audition and casting process. The most important element in auditioning is that you go for it! Give us 100% when you audition.

All roles listed will have a minimum of two actors playing the part. When one person is performing their lead, the others that are cast will be performing their ensemble roles. If you are cast as a lead, you will be expected to work just as hard on your ensemble role as you do on your lead role. Lead roles may be in jeopardy if ensemble obligations are not met.

Remember, the Show Director has years of experience in casting. for the production, the program, and the individual participant. educational experience. She will base her decisions on what she feels is best. Our goal is for everyone to have a successful, fun, and All roles will require energy, enthusiasm, commitment and flexibility. If you are cast, your Lead Rehearsals will be on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7:00 – 9:30 pm. Additional Lead Rehearsals may be called on Saturdays or Sundays. Always check your Rehearsal Schedules carefully to see if you are required to attend. Many Lead roles require an additional lead fee as well depending on role.
